Chamber Chat September 02, 2009

The Pleasanton 44th annual Cowboy Homecoming was a great one. If you did not get out for any of it you sure missed a good time. The Thursday Coors Light Tejano Bike night had many bike clubs show up to show off their bikes and the sounds of Los Desperadoz and David Lee Garza y los Musicales had everyone's feet tapping.

Friday started off with the cowboy breakfast and the news crew from Fox 29 putting the event on air all morning. All day long you could smell the food booths, the chili cook off and Backyard cookers. The Texas Aggie Wranglers put on a great show along with Pleasanton Pacesetters. The evening event filled up fast to see the new Cowboy Homecoming Queen Ashtian Guerra crowned. The big topper for the evening was the Scott Wiggins Band opening for the Eli Young Band. What a great show.

Saturday kicked off with the Cowboy Gallop 5K Run- walk then the parade - one of the largest parades Pleasanton has had. All day long there were activities happening from the 3x3 Roundball, 7x7 Flag Football, Texas Hold'em, chicken roping, cow patty bingo, horse shoe and washer tournament, water slides, mechanical bull rides, Lil' Darling contest, pictures taken on real horses and longhorn, Backyard Cook-off and Margarita Pour-off. Late afternoon was the wild and wooly bull riding. Ending the evening was J. R. Castillo, who put on a good show opening for Steve Wariner.

The Pleasanton Chamber gives a big heartfelt thank you to all our sponsors, volunteers, the City of Pleasanton and every person who helped us make the 44th annual Cowboy Homecoming the great event it was.

Until next time.
